sissippi vote soared above the 100,000 presided mark-three times higher than that of the existing record of Republican votes cast for Herbert Hoover in 1928.

In Hancock County, 20 of the 23 precincts gave Stevenson 1,401 votes and Eisenhower 1,280. Pointing out that "there's never been anything like it before in a presidential election, county political observers said the heav vote cast Tuesday has been exceede only by general state and county

Judging from the incomplete tally, proposed constitutional amendmen requiring Mississippi voters to be able to reed and write was falling short of its mark in Tuesday's election. Those its mark in Tuesday's election. Those on Friday night when a large crowd favoring the amendment outvoted op of children and adults gathered at the position two-to-one, but many voters failed to check the amendment either way, causing it to fail to receive a majority of the total vote that was needed for adoption.

Eisenhower apparently received around 90,000 votes of registered Democrats in Mississippi, the Rpublican vote in the state usually running around 7.000. Former Lt. Governor Sam Lumpkin began the Eisenhower movement in the state. He later was joined by Democratic leaders such as House Speaker Walter Sillers and some state legislators. The Democrats-for-Eisenhower movement gained enough momenturn to force the regular Democratic party ticket to wage the first active campaign in the state in 76 years. Bisenhower's theft of the twelve Solid South" states and obvious trength in the other seven indicated a strong possibility of the beginning of a two-party system in the South, according to political experts.

On last Thursday a moot election was held in the Social Science Department. Regular election procedure was carried out and each student was given a mimeographed copy of the official beliet. The results were 92 for the Eisenhower-Nixon Electors and 70 for the Stevenson-Sparkman electors. This election was the climax of a civics project on the "Steps in the Election of the President."

YOUTH CENTER NEWS

This past Saturday the teenagers of Bay St. Louis enjoyed a very fine Halloween party and Dance at the local Youth Center. Included in the party, which got underway at 1:30 p.m. was the Catch the Greased Pig Contest which was won by John Demoran and Hugo Favre. Immediately following this contest was the Climb the Greased Pole affair which was won by Hugo Favre. A Halloween Dance was given that night with music by Harry and His Joyland Revelers, a local orchestra. During orchestra intermission "bobwere held with numerous boys getting for his accomplishment.
